8.1 Proposal of Centre for Vedant Studies

Decision: Prof. Vijay Kumar Singh- Registrar proposed to start Centre for Vedant Studies to inculcate the knowledge of our holy Veda & Upnishad among students and sought for the approval and the members gave the approval for the same. It will help the students to understand the purpose of their life. The Vedas are divided into four parts, Samhitas, Brahmanas, Aranyakas, and Upanishads. The first one is the ritual portion of the Vedas. The fourth one is the philosophical part. The middle two are a mixture of both. The essential knowledge derived from the four parts of the Vedas is collectively known as Mimansa. Centre for Vedant Studies will be regulated by Department of Philosophy. The centre will propagate the Research work by felicitating

PhD degree in the field of Vedant. This centre will also organise the Workshop/ Seminar/ Symposium/ Conference/ Short Term Training Course etc.

Vote of thanks was given by Prof. Vijay Kumar Singh- Registrar.

Prof. Vijay Kumar Singh- Registrar with due permission of the Chair adjourned the meeting at 05:00 PM
