Introduction

The Faculty of Commerce at Sarala Birla University successfully organized the FinEcon Quiz Competition on the Union Budget 2025 on 24th February 2025. The event was conducted at two venues, A1-603 and the Amphitheatre, witnessing enthusiastic participation from students across various departments of the university. The competition aimed to enhance students' understanding of the Union Budget and its implications for the economy.

The event was graced by the presence of esteemed dignitaries, including Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Dr. C. Jeganathan, Registrar Dr. V.K. Singh, and Dean of the Faculty of Commerce, Dr. Sandeep Kumar. Faculty members and students from different disciplines attended the event, making it a grand success. Dr. Sandeep Kumar extended a warm welcome to all attendees and provided an overview of the event's objectives and format.

The primary objective of the FinEcon Quiz Competition was to enhance awareness and understanding of the current budget among students, professionals, and finance and economics enthusiasts. The event aimed to deepen participants' knowledge of fiscal policies, economic forecasts, and the distribution of government resources. Moreover, it sought to stimulate critical thinking about how the budget impacts different sectors such as public services, infrastructure, education, and healthcare. By offering an engaging and interactive platform, the competition encouraged participants to explore economic concepts and their real-world applications, ultimately fostering financial literacy and analytical skills.

Address by Hon'ble Vice Chancellor

Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Dr. C. Jeganathan addressed the gathering, emphasizing the significance of the Union Budget in shaping the economic landscape of India. He highlighted key aspects of the budget, including its impact on the agrarian society, sustainable development, and the income dynamics of the middle class. His insightful speech provided students with a broader perspective on how the budget influences various sectors and contributes to national growth. He concluded by blessing the students and extending his best wishes to all participants.

The FinEcon Quiz Competition was structured into three competitive stages, ensuring a comprehensive evaluation of participants' knowledge and analytical skills related to the Union Budget 2025-26.

Stage 1: Speech Competition (9:30 AM - 11:00 AM)

The first stage involved a speech competition where participants delivered their perspectives on the Union Budget 2025-26. Each participant presented well-researched insights, showcasing their understanding of the budget's provisions and economic impact. After a rigorous evaluation, the top 12 candidates were selected for the next stage.

The selected candidates were:

Stage 3: Final Quiz Round (1:30 PM - 2:50 PM)

The final stage was the quiz round, conducted in the Amphitheatre, where the top eight participants competed for the top positions. The quiz tested their knowledge of the Union Budget 2025, economic policies, and financial concepts. The competition was intense, with participants showcasing their quick thinking and understanding of economic principles.

After an exciting the final round, the winners were declared as follows:

- 1st Position: Bhaiya Ayush Sinha
- 2nd Position: Abhishek Das
- 3rd Position: Shubhangi

To recognize the exceptional performance of participants, various awards and acknowledgments were given. The top three winners were honored with a memento and a special gift, celebrating their remarkable knowledge and achievements in the competition. Furthermore, to acknowledge the efforts of all participants, digital certificates were awarded to those who scored above a designated threshold. These recognitions were designed to inspire students and encourage active participation in future academic competitions.

The FinEcon Quiz on the Union Budget 2025 served as both an educational initiative and an interactive competition. It empowered participants with a deeper understanding of the budget and its implications while fostering an engaging and competitive learning environment. The multi-stage format ensured that participants were assessed on diverse economic aspects, and the structured feedback system contributed to continuous improvement in financial literacy.

The event concluded on a positive note, highlighting the importance of financial literacy and policy awareness among students. The FinEcon Quiz Competition not only served as an academic exercise but also fostered critical thinking and public speaking skills among participants.

Dr. Mukesh Babu Gupta delivered the vote of thanks, appreciating the efforts of all faculty members and students in making the event a grand success. The Faculty of Commerce at Sarala Birla University expressed its commitment to continuing such initiatives that contribute to students' knowledge and engagement with economic policies.

The FinEcon Quiz Competition successfully provided an in-depth understanding of the Union Budget 2025, leaving a lasting impact on all attendees. The event stood as a testament to the university's dedication to academic excellence and holistic learning.
